NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Wednesday, February 23, 2022:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Joan H. Lefkow: Plaintiff's motion to remand (dkt. [12]) is denied. The preponderance of evidence submitted by the parties leads to the conclusion that on November 19, 2021, the date this action was filed, defendant's principal place of business was in Evansville, Indiana. See dkt. [17]–3 (verified registration with the State of Indiana as a foreign corporation with its principal place of business in Evansville, Indiana, eff. Sept. 1, 2021); dkt. [17]–4 (verified amended 2020 annual franchise tax report dated Sept. 1, 2021, reflecting addresses of five officers at defendant's place of business in Evansville, Indiana); dkt. [17]–7 (business information filed with Indiana Secretary of State, dated Jan. 5, 2022, identifying the president, treasurer and secretary of defendant as located at the same address in Evansville). The court finds no reason to suppose that defendant would have filed false documents with the State of Indiana and, as such, concludes that defendant's principal place of business is not, as plaintiff argues, in Illinois. Because plaintiff has informed the court that if her motion to remand is denied she shall have no objection to defendant's motion to transfer to the District of Nevada (dkt. [22]) and because there is no apparent connection of the case to the State of Illinois, the motion to transfer (dkt. [7]) is granted. The Clerk's Office is directed to transfer this case to the District of Nevada forthwith. The motion of plaintiff to stay (dkt. [26]) is denied without prejudice. Mailed notice (ags)
